HYATTSVILLE STOPS

HYATTSVILLE, June 22.-Hyattsville dministered Brentwood's second defeat of the season by the parrow margin of 3 to 2, yesterday. An unusually large attendance saw the headliners defeated, and the interest was heightened by a narrowly-averted scrap which threatened in the ninth, when, after Brentwood had scored one tally, Umpire Mea-session, when Galt got home before the right gardener could relay the ball to home plate, and, Mangum came in on Geib's single. The winning run, made in the eighth, was the result of a
